TO CONFEE ON PHONE RATES

Oklahoma City, Nov.—The state corporation commission has requested the public utilities commission of Kansas, Missouri and Arkansas to participate in a conference with the Oklahoma commission relative to future policy in regard to rates to be charged by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas comprise the Southwestern Division of the Bell Telephone Company. The federal war period rates, approximately an advance of from thirty-five to forty percent will expire December 1. During the hearing recently held before the Oklahoma commission Attorney Sam Hayes, for the telephone company, lodged a motion which if granted would have the effect of holding the Federal rate in effect pending a decision by the commission of the present litigation. Attorney Oscar Thravers, who represents the complainants in the general hearing, opposed the motion and demanded that with the expiration of the war control period that the federal rate be suspended. It is upon this phase of the question that the Oklahoma commission has asked a conference with the utility bodies of the three other states in the Southwestern division.

The general hearing on complaints of inadequate and inefficient service, which has been in progress intermittently since Nov. 5th has been recessed until December 17th.

It will pay you to use this money in paying off your present loan or rather indebtedness. Do not take some one's word that "it can't be done". We are ready to show you.
